

Last Name _____ First Name _____

Preferred name on bib (doesn't mean you will get it) _____

Size of shorts (guy) or skirt (girl or past participants) _____ (entry postmarked before June 25)

Age on race day _____ Date of Birth _____ Sex _____ Email _____

Hometown _____ Who told you (culpability partner) _____

Please tell below why you want to do this:

NOTE: only 150 runners. Race entry $55 if postmarked on April 1 (Fool's discount). $65 for the months of April and May. $75 after June 1, 2019. Check or M.O. to: Josh Hite – Blister Marathon. No Credit Cards. Mail entry & registration: Josh Hite 602 Summit Ave. 2S Hagerstown, MD 21740

I acknowledge that participating in running the Blister in the Sun Marathon is foolish and make this choice on my own freewill. I understand that marathon running imposes harm to the body and will not hold the race director (Josh Hite) responsible for any injuries or deaths that I may sustain during this event. I probably will get hot, uncomfortable, sweaty, stinky, tired, and ask myself why do this. This is all to be expected. I also agree that the only course of action I will take if I have a problem with the race will be to write scathing reviews, but I will not sue, seek damages, or pursue any legal action against anyone involved in the organization of this race. I further acknowledge that running in this heat and humidity on these hills is beyond stupid. I therefore waive, release, and discharge any and all claims against the Hite Clan, Cane Creek Park, the city of Cookeville, the county of Putnam, the state of Tennessee, and the government of the United States of America or their representatives, agents, or successors for any damages or injuries I may suffer. I do this on behalf of myself, my heirs, devisees, executors and administrators.

Signature _____

Date _____

You will hear about your acceptance in roughly a week.